

From Pastor Kleinschmidt

Father's Day is June 15th this year. On this Hallmark holiday, we are reminded that we should thank our dads for being our dads and show them how much we appreciate all they do for us. But this secular holiday also gives an opportunity to reflect on what it means that God is our Father.

Jesus tells us that we should call the 1st Person of the Holy Trinity Father. And because Jesus tells us to do this, we do this. God the Father is the perfect Father who also shows the love and compassion that his children need. He provides all that this body needs for daily living and sustenance. In God the Father, all earthly fathers have someone from whom they can learn what fatherhood is.

Our earthly fathers will sometimes fail us. They can fail us by not being there, by not properly caring for us or even not giving loving and kind words to us.

But even as our earthly fathers may not be perfect, we do have the perfect Father who does everything perfectly and loves us as His beloved children.

Jesus says in Luke 11:11-13, "What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

The point of what Jesus says is that for the most part our earthly fathers are good fathers. And we can think about our own fathers and the good things they do for children and then conclude that of course our heavenly Father will give us even greater gifts. The greatest gift the Heavenly Father gives us is faith in his dearly beloved Son by the working of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit creates faith in us and we believe that Jesus is the true Son of God and our very own Savior. Without the gift of the Son from the Father to us, we wouldn't have the courage or the right to call God our Father. But by the work of Jesus, we can call God our Father.

The parable that Jesus teaches of the Prodigal Son tells us much of the undeserved love that God the Father has for us children. Luke records the words of Jesus' parable, "I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants.'

And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him." (Luke 15:18-20)

The Father has been waiting, looking off into the distance hoping to catch a glimpse of his son who has returned. While the son is still far off, the father sees his son returning. He is so eager to have his son back that he has put other things off so that he can be waiting for that first sign of his son's return. Our heavenly Father certainly is looking down to earth ready to shower his compassion and love upon his.

To thank God that he is our Father reminds us that we should absolutely also thank our fathers for being there for us and thanking God that he has put them in our lives.

In the Fatherly love of God,
Pastor Kleinschmidt

ABOUT THE SERVICE

Each month in the newsletter there will be a short explanation of an item from the Service.

The Distribution

By the power of His testament our Lord feeds His people with His Body and Blood for the forgiveness of our sins. We humbly receive this blessing the our Lord has given us. This faith trusts the words of Christ's testament, "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins". The hymns and choir music sung during the distribution reflect the theme of the season and day in the Church Year or the theology of the Sacrament.

Post-Communion Canticle

After receiving the Body and Blood of our Lord we proclaim our thanksgiving in song. The canticle, "Nunc Dimittis" (Song of Simeon) proclaims the faithfulness of the Lord to his promise to dwell among us and the peace that His salvation brings to us.

LIBRARY NEWS

PLANTING SEEDS

The Fox Valley Church Library Association spring meeting was held on May 3rd at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Appleton. This association is made up of members from churches of numerous denominations. The meeting opened with Karen Cove, author of several children's books along with an adult fiction book. She was an interesting and compelling speaker, sharing her story in her books. Another guest was Hermi Krueger, a very accomplished artist and photographer. Hermi spent her early years in a concentration camp before migrating to the US from Yugoslavia. Her eyes filled with tears as she recalled the first time she saw the statue of liberty, something that many of us take for granted. The meeting concluded with members from each church talking about 5 new books in their library. The roundtable provided a good list of books that will possibly show up in our library. As Hermi listened to this discussion, she realized that her church's library could certainly use the information that was shared, even though her church was not a member of this association. One final topic that was discussed was a summer reading program for children. They would keep track of the books that they checked out from the church library, and read during the summer. They would be rewarded for their diligence with things like a free ice cream cone. This is something that our Board of Education, along with our library, could consider for future summers. I welcome any thoughts or discussion. Please contact Nancy Thelen with any input on the idea. The next meeting will be in October at Trinity Lutheran Church in Waupaca.
